Conduct with Children and Vulnerable Adults At Schools, Day Centres and Workshops at Face Front Inclusive Theatre

This information is part of the agreement all staff, volunteers and freelancers are required to agree to before working with Children or Vulnerable Adults:

- Treat all children and young people with respect and listen to them carefully
- Never work or perform without the presence of teachers
- Avoid being left alone with a single child
- Do not initiate any physical contact with children – it should not be necessary
- If a child initiates physical contact – eg. approaches you for a hug – deflect if possible and offer a hand to shake
- Do not encourage children to sit on your knee – sit beside them.
- You are not in the school in a disciplinary capacity – leave that to the teachers!
- Never reprimand or shout at a child.
- Avoid getting involved in issues that arise – do not break up fights!
- If a child informs you of a problem – tell a member of teaching staff. Don't hang around whilst the teacher deals with the situation.
- If a child has an accident you are not responsible for administering first aid. Find a member of staff to deal with the incident.
- If you approached by a child wishing to tell 'confidences' do not agree to keep the issue secret and encourage them to tell a teacher or parent.
- If you become involved in a situation with a child that concerns you – tell the project coordinator immediately
- Maintain professional behaviour at all times.
- Ensure language is age appropriate especially concerning matters relating to sex, drugs, violence or pornography. Please make sure that you have received training on this area.
- No sexual or discriminatory language or behaviour is acceptable with young people or vulnerable adults, even if done through 'humour'. Please refer Face Front's Grievance, Disciplinary, Bullying and Harassment Policy.
- Don't ask for any personal details from young people (phone number, address, email) and don't accept personal details if offered.
