Personal Statement

Paul is a creative, innovative person with aspirations of building a career within the media and broadcasting industry. He enjoys developing ideas and solutions that are outside the box, and challenging outdated norms that push profit over creativity. He has a positive and enthusiastic approach towards learning new skills.

In addition to performing, Paul is skilled in written and verbal communication and using technology. His biggest passion is developing screenplays. He recently wrote, acted and directed in his own short film project which has been shortlisted for the OSKA Bright Film Festival.
